

Housing “Hot Topics” Seminars

---

The Metropolitan Mayors Caucus, Business and Professional People for the Public Interest, and Metropolitan Planning Council are sponsoring three half-day seminars on housing policies and tools. The seminars are designed to answer municipal officials' questions regarding how to ensure a range of housing options in their communities.

Wednesday, May 10: How do we maintain long-term affordability?

10:30 am – 2:00 pm

Agenda includes:

- Local and National Examples: Community Land Trusts & Deed Restrictions
  - Cook County Assessor: Assessing Affordable Properties

To be held at the DuPage County Building, 421 N. County Farm Rd. in Wheaton
RSVP by Friday, May 5

Tuesday, May 16: How can we use our land use regulations to encourage the creation and/or preservation of affordable housing?

10:00 am – 1:30 pm

Agenda Includes:

- Local and National Examples: Inclusionary and Flexible Zoning
  - How Developers Use Zoning Tools

To be held at the DuPage County Building, 421 N. County Farm Rd. in Wheaton
RSVP by Wednesday, May 10

Thursday, May 18: How do we fund these efforts?

10:00 am – 2:00 pm

Agenda Includes:

- Federal, State and Local Funding Sources
  - Local Revenue Tools in Use

To be held at Metropolitan Family Services, 222 East Willow Ave in Wheaton
RSVP by Wednesday, May 10

The strategies that will be discussed at these seminars can be used by any municipality in order to provide a balance of housing for its residents and workforce. Seminars are targeted at all municipal officials, whether or not their community was on the “non-exempt” list produced by the Illinois Housing Development Authority in 2004 as a result of the Affordable Housing Planning and Appeal Act.
